About Trenton, NJ Area

The Secret Real Estate Investment Goldmine of New Jersey

Trenton is the capital of the U.S. state of New Jersey (richest state in America) and the county seat of Mercer County. As of 2008, the United States Census Bureau estimated that the city of Trenton had a population of 82,883. It is known for being one of the most undervalued cities in the entire U.S.

The Four Wards of Trenton

- The North Ward, once a mecca for the city's middle class, is now one of the most economically distressed, torn apart by race riots following the assassination of Martin Luther King in 1968. North Trenton has a large Polish-American neighborhood that borders Lawrence Township, many of whom attend St Hedwigs Roman Catholic Church on Brunswick Ave. St. Hedwigs church was built in 1904 by Polish immigrants, many of whose families still attend the church.
- South Ward is the most diverse neighborhood in Trenton and is home to many Latin American, Italian-American, and African American residents.
- East Ward is the smallest neighborhood in Trenton and is home to the Trenton's Train Station as well as Trenton Central High School. The Chambersburg neighborhood is within the East Ward, and was once noted in the region as a destination for its many Italian restaurants and pizzerias.
- West Ward is the home of Trenton's more suburban neighborhoods, including Hiltonia, Glen Afton, Berkeley Square, and the area surrounding Cadwalader Park.
